

GLOBAL PRIVACY NOTICE
LAST UPDATED: NOVEMBER 1, 2022

MoneyGram is a leading global financial technology company that provides innovative money transfer and payment services to millions of consumers around the world. We are committed to safeguarding the privacy of your Personal Information. This Privacy Notice describes our data privacy practices and policies when you interact with us, including how we collect, use and share your Personal Information in accordance with applicable laws and standards of ethical conduct. If our practices and policies change, we will update this Privacy Notice.

WHO WE ARE?

A “data controller” determines how and why a personal data will be used by an organization.

This Privacy Notice applies to MoneyGram Payment Systems, Inc., a wholly owned subsidiary of MoneyGram International, Inc. and its affiliates and subsidiaries world-wide (collectively “MoneyGram,” “MoneyGram Group,” “us,” “our,” “we”).

The bulk of our money transfer services, and business activities are conducted under MoneyGram Payment Systems, Inc., a U.S. entity located at 1550 Utica Avenue South, Suite #100, Minneapolis, MN 55416, U.S. (“MPSI”). Most typically, MPSI will be the “data controller” in relation to any Personal Information provided to us anywhere in the world whether in-person at our agent locations, or via email, phone, or via our website or mobile application, unless we have another local MoneyGram licensed entity. This means MPSI is responsible for deciding how it will hold and use the Personal Information about you.

However, depending on your location and how you may interact with us a different MoneyGram entity may be the “data controller.” For example, if you use our money transfer services in the European Union (“EU”), you will be interacting with MoneyGram International SA, a Belgium entity with the registered address at Rue Joseph Stevens BE-1000 Brussels, Belgium. In such instances, MoneyGram International SA will be the “data controller” of your Personal Information collected in the EU.

For a list of the main entities that are “data controllers” depending on your location and interaction with us, please click here.

ACCESSING YOUR PERSONAL INFORMATION

You have the right to access the Personal Information we hold about you.

Under certain circumstances, you may have the right to access your Personal Information as permitted by applicable laws. We will respond to your request without undue delay in accordance with applicable data protection laws and applicable rules and regulations.

Subject to the verification of your identity, you have the following data subject access rights:

- Right of access to your Personal Information – you have a right to know if we are processing your Personal Information and for what purposes free of charge.
- Right to have inaccurate Personal Information corrected – you have the right to ask us to correct information about you that is inaccurate, incomplete or out-of-date.
- Right to have your Personal Information erased – in some circumstances you have the right to ask us to delete certain information about you. This right is not absolute and can only be exercised in accordance with applicable laws.
- Right to restrict processing of your Personal Information – in certain circumstances, you have the right to restrict or object to certain uses of information we hold about you.
- Right to data portability – in certain circumstances you have the right to request to receive a copy of your Personal Information in a commonly used electronic format or have it transferred to another third party where it is technically feasible. Certain fees may apply.
- Right to object to the processing of your Personal Information - wherever we use legitimate interest as the ground to the processing your Personal Information you can object to our use of it.
- Right not to be subject to a decision based solely on automated processing – none of our activities constitute decisions based solely on automated processing, as defined in Article 22 of the GDPR.

To exercise any of your data subject access rights described above, you may submit your request to us by either:

- Emailing us at privacyprogramoffice@moneygram.com; or
- Visiting www.moneygram.com and click on the “Contact Us” link.

We will endeavor to respond to your request within 30 days, but our response time may vary depending on the laws and regulations applicable to your

| | request, and in some circumstances, we may be entitled to extend this period with notice to you. We will comply with your request to the extent required by applicable laws. Where you believe that we have not complied with our obligations with respect to your data subject access rights, you have the right to make a complaint to a relevant Data Protection Authority or through the courts. |
| HOW LONG WE KEEP PERSONAL INFORMATION We keep Personal Information only as long as necessary under legal and regulatory requirements and our business needs. | The Personal Information we collect or is provided to us is used for different purposes and is subject to different standards and regulations. In general, Personal Information is retained for as long as necessary to provide you with the Services you request, to comply with applicable legal, accounting or reporting requirements, and to ensure that you have a reasonable opportunity to access your Personal Information. To determine the appropriate retention period for Personal Information, among many factors, we consider the applicable legal requirements, the purposes for which we process your Personal information, our business needs, information requests related to investigations, reviews and litigations, and the potential risk of harm from unauthorized use or disclosure of your Personal Information. For example, for: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Legal and Regulatory Requirements. We retain Personal Information and transactional data for those periods required to comply with all retention and reporting obligations under applicable laws, including without limitation commercial, tax and anti-money laundering laws and regulations. • Customer Service (administration of customer relationship, complaint handling, etc.). We may process and retain your Personal Information for as long as we have an on-going relationship with you. Once our relationship has ended (for example because the Services have been delivered, or you have exercised your right to withdraw from the contract), we will, subject to any retention requirements under applicable laws, erase or anonymize your Personal Information. • Marketing. Personal Information provided to us for marketing purposes may be retained until you opt out or until we become aware that any such data is inaccurate provided you do not have other on-going relationship with us. |

|---|---|
| | In some circumstances, we may anonymize your Personal Information (so that it can no longer be associated with you) for research or statistical purposes, in which case, we may use this information indefinitely without further notice to you. |
| JURISDICTION AND CROSS-BORDER DATA TRANSFERS When you interact with us, your information may be sent to a country other than your own, including the United States, for processing and storage. | We are based in and operate from the United States. Most of the back-office support services and data storage servers for our affiliates and subsidiaries world-wide are located in the U.S., unless required otherwise. In addition, we have customer support call centers located in different countries. For these reasons, Personal Information collected in one country may be transferred to the U.S., or to a different country, for processing or storage. In all these instances, we have taken appropriate safeguards to comply with applicable data protection laws, including the European Union’s personal data transfer restrictions outside the European Economic Area, by putting in place an intracompany data processing and protection agreement for cross-border transfers of Personal Information within the MoneyGram Group of companies, with EU’s Standard Contractual Clauses added for Personal Information that is subject to EU’s General Data Protection Regulation. When you interact with us, you understand that your Personal Information may be transferred to a country other than your own, including to the U.S., for processing and storage. You also understand and that data protection rules of other countries may be different from those of your country. In certain circumstances, courts, law enforcement agencies, regulatory agencies or security authorities in those other countries may be entitled to access your Personal Information. |
| PRIVACY RELATED COMPLAINTS PROCEDURE We take your privacy seriously and have created a process by which you can formally file a complaint | If you believe that we have not complied with our obligations under this Privacy Notice or applicable data privacy and protection laws, you have the right to file a complaint with the appropriate Data Protection Authority or courts. Although not required, we encourage you to let us know about any privacy related complaint you might have against us, and we will respond in line with our complaints’ procedure – our contact details are set out below. Privacy related complaints or concerns can be submitted to our privacy team: By email at: privacyprogramoffice@moneygram.com By post to: MoneyGram Payment Systems, Inc. Attn: Global Data Protection Officer 2828 N.
